g high volume facilities in four provinces, KwaZulu-Natal, Eastern Cape, Gauteng and Free State, this Public He d the International Diabetes Federation's 1 population (late 642 million people) and causes 3 by 2040.6 million p ries which have a key initiative will be the development of a clinical training package for healthcare providers. Th amongst patients and the general population, as well as carry out large scale diabetes and tuberculosis screen is please click here: http://www.epresspack.net/sanofi-diabetes-global-health/news/1577 ilable at: http://www.epresspack.net/sanofi-diabetes-global-health

References:

as, 7th edition. Brussels, Belgium: International Diabetes Federation, 2015. http://www.diabetesatlas.org anization, 2015. http://www.who.int/tb/publications/global_report/gtbr15_main_text.pdf?ua=15. Last accessed N gh addressing the global diabetic epidemic: from evidence to policy and practice. The Lancet Diabetes & Endocr