First Lady Margaret Kenyatta inaugurates partnership between government of Kenya and Roche

NAIROBI, Kenya, August 15, 2016 – First Lady Margaret Kenyatta, Kenya Ministry of Health and Roche

The program also complements the campaign from the African First Ladies who are committed to expa

The public-private partnership's planned activities include breast cancer awareness programs, improve

"Strong, healthy women are the foundation of families, of our country, and today in Kenya their health i

Breast cancer remains the leading cause of cancer in women in Kenya with more 50 percent of the cas

The Kenya agreement is part of Roche's Africa Strategy which began in 2015 in seven countries: Niger

"We are honored to have First Lady Margaret Kenyatta here today to launch this important initiative for

Breast cancer in Kenya

Breast cancer is the second most common type of cancer in Kenya recording 4,500 new cases every y

Distributed by APO on behalf of Roche Pharmaceuticals Limited.

View multimedia content

About Roche:
Roche (www.Roche.com) is a global pioneer in pharmaceuticals and diagnostics focus
All trademarks used or mentioned in this release are protected by law.