According to a Statistics South Africa report based on the last census, over 2.8 million people s

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, January 10, 2017/ --

- Over 2.8 million (http://APO.af/gqdOpi) peo
- The first beneficiary of #OperationRehab has returned to South Africa with a new prosthetic

#OperationRehab aims to revolutionise the delivery of healthcare and education to disabled peop

The initiative will empower the beneficiaries, reduce the financial burden on their families and contribute

#OperationRehab is modelled on the stellar work of the Disable Welfare Trust of India (www.DisableIndia.org

Shree Kanubhai Tailor will personally lend his expertise to the #OperationRehab project and oversee the replication of the Trust's model .co.za) as a part of its corpora

Dharmesh Nagar, Strategy Director at #OperationRehab Revolution, will help to coordinate the project and liaise with the Indian team.

In India, the Disable Welfare Trust is able to treat thousands of disabled people at no charge, thanks to

The first beneficiary of #OperationRehab, 55-year-old Sharad Narsai of Lenasia, returned to Sou

"It is mind-blowing and completely exceeded my expectations," he added. "I have never been treated w

According to a Statistics South Africa (http://APO.af/gqdOpi) report based on the last census, over 2.8 million people

The #OperationRehab initiative calls all like-minded organisations, companies

All new partners and sponsors will benefit from the expertise of South African marketing and advertising