

1000 disabled Africans to receive free treatment in India through the #OperationRehab initiative

Écrit par OperationRehab
Mardi, 10 Janvier 2017 22:35 -

According to a Statistics South Africa report based on the last census, over 2.8 million people

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, January 10, 2017/ --

- Over 2.8 million (<http://APO.af/ggdOpi>) people
- The first beneficiary of #OperationRehab has returned to South Africa with a new prosthetic

#OperationRehab aims to revolutionise the delivery of healthcare and education to disabled people

The initiative will empower the beneficiaries, reduce the financial burden on their families and contribute

#OperationRehab is modelled on the stellar www.DisableIndia.org Disable Welfare Trust of India (

Shree Kanubhai Tailor #OperationRehab to the project and oversee the www.MedicalAlertTrust.co.za) as a part of its corporate

Dharmesh Nagar, Strategic #OperationRehab India Revolution project that the project aims to help restore dignity

In India, the Disable Welfare Trust is able to treat thousands of disabled people at no charge, thanks to

The first beneficiary of #OperationRehab, 55-year-old Sharad Narsai of Lenasia, returned to South

“It is mind-blowing and completely exceeded my expectations,” he added. “I have never been treated with

According to a Statistics South Africa/ggdOpi) report based on the last APO.af/ggdOpi (over 2.8 million people

The #OperationRehab initiative calls all like-minded organisations, companies

All new partners and sponsors will benefit from the expertise of South African marketing and advertising

1000 disabled Africans to receive free treatment in India through the #OperationRehab initiative

Écrit par OperationRehab

Mardi, 10 Janvier 2017 22:35 -
