Merck Foundation, through their 'Merck More than a Mother' campaign focuses on empowering i

KAMPALA, Uganda, September 5, 2017/ --

- Merck Foundation Supports the First Public IVF and Fertility Center in Sub-Saharan Africa,
- Merck Foundation commits to build cancer care capacity and support Uganda Cancer Insti

Merck Foundation (www.Merck-Foundation.com), a non-profit organization, and a subsidiary of M

Prof. Frank Stangenberg-Haverkamp, Chairman of Board of Trustees of Merck foundation emphasized

"We appreciate the constant support from the Ministry of Health and thank the Government of Uganda

Earlier, Merck foundation together with Ministry of Health of Uganda held a series of meetings and visit

Merck Foundation together with the Uganda Ministry of Health visited rural villages in Western Uganda

The 'Merck More than a Mother' women group in appreciation of the Foundation's support gave Prof. F

"One of my most fulfilling moments is seeing these childless women lead happy and independent lives.

Merck Foundation, through their 'Merck More than a Mother' campaign focuses on empowering infertile

"Raising awareness about male infertility is very important to change the culture as the infertility affects

"Among the many projects we established for the childless women across Africa, it is the highlight of ou

During their visit to the new Women Maternal Hospital, Merck Foundation through the 'Merck More than

During their visit to the Uganda Cancer Centre, Uganda Minister for Health, Hon. Sarah Opendi noted "

And on his part, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Merck Foundation, Prof Frank Stangenberg-Have

"Through Merck Cancer Access Program, Merck Foundation will continue doing what they do best, buil

Merck Foundation affirmed their support to the Cancer institute's role as a regional centre of excellence